The Club at White Oaks named Facility of the Year by Tennis Professional Association Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario (March 8, 2013)

At the Wilson Tennis Professionals Association awards breakfast held in Toronto February 22, 2013, Tennis Canada and the Tennis Professionals Association (TPA) announced recipients of the 2012 TPA Excellence Awards as part of the TPA National Coaching Conference. The Club at White Oaks, located in Niagara on the Lake, Ontario was named Facility of the Year. This award recognizes the tennis facility which demonstrates a commitment to the promotion of tennis and is supportive of the TPA by hiring only active and certified instructors, coaches or club professionals. White Oaks has been a leader in racquet sports for the past 30 years and has developed a successful junior program which consistently has over 200 students per session. White Oaks has also opened its doors and has run numerous sanctioned tournaments.

“The TPA Excellence Awards recognize and honour those individuals whose hard work, devotion to the sport and accomplishments benefit the entire Canadian tennis and coaching community,” said Air Novick, Director of Coaching Development for Tennis Canada.

The TPA Facility of the Year award comes on the heels of White Oaks being awarded the 2014 Women’s World Squash tournament which will see players from 36 countries arrive in December 2014 to compete for the title of best in the world.
